

Alpines

March 2020

Alpines are evergreen, low growing and best in a sunny position. They are all a great early food source for bees and butterflies.

Aubrieta – covered in of flowers and more buds.
9cm -£2.50

- hybrida 'Axcent Violet with Eye' – deep lavender-purple with a tiny yellow eye.
- hybrida 'Audrey Red' – deep red flowers.
- hybrida 'Silberand' – large violet flowers on variegated foliage.
- gracilis 'Florado Blue Bicolour' – bi-colour shades of light blue with white flowers.

Pulsatilla – flowers and more buds. 9cm - £2.50

- vulgaris 'Purple' – purple flowers over fern-like foliage.
- vulgaris 'Red' – red flowers over fern-like foliage.

Phlox – covered in flower buds. 9cm - £2.50

- kelseyi 'Rosette' – heart shaped petals, lilac-pink flowers.
- subulata 'Bavaria' - white star shaped flowers with a dark blue centre.
- subulata 'G.F.Wilson' - pearly-blue flowers.

Saxifraga – covered in flowers and more buds.

9cm - £2.50

- x arendsii 'Limerock' - short stems bearing upward-facing, cup-shaped, white flowers, flushed yellow-green at the centres
- x arendsii 'Touran Scarlet' - short stems bear upward-facing, cup-shaped, scarlet flowers with yellow centres.

Sedum 9cm - £2.50

- spathulifolium 'Purpureum' - little purple-grey rosettes, yellow flowers in June.
- spurium 'Voodoo' - green leaves heavily-flushed with dark red. Clusters of dark reddish-pink, star-shaped flowers are produced on short, upright stems in June.

Rhodanthemum – flowers with more buds.

9cm - £2.50

- hybrida 'Casablanca' - finely divided, grey-green leaves with short stems bearing white, daisy-like flowers with orange-brown central discs.

Lithospermum – covered in flower buds. 9cm - £3.00

- 'Heavenly Blue' - Stunning brilliant blue flowers on prostrate stems of deep green foliage.